Director opportunities with the Q Shelter Management Committee

This is a significant opportunity for passionate volunteers to lead solutions on housing need and homelessness in Queensland. Join us at this critical time.

Brisbane 2032 is an opportunity to achieve a new benchmark in delivering legacy benefits for housing through international events.

About Q Shelter

As a peak body for solutions to housing need and homelessness, Q Shelter is committed to our vision that every Queenslander has a home. Q Shelter is governed by a skills-based Management Committee consisting of a Chair and up to eleven Directors appointed by our members.

- Our Vision is that every Queenslander has a home
- Our Purpose is to lead solutions that address housing need and homelessness
- Our Values are Collaboration, Respect, Inclusion, and Innovation

Our Strategic Outcomes

- We work to influence solutions to housing need and homelessness.
- We build capacity to deliver solutions to housing need and homelessness.
- We invest in Q Shelter's strength, sustainability, and future.

The role of Q Shelter Management Committee

As a member of the Q Shelter Management Committee, you will:

- bring strong corporate governance
- provide strategic leadership and direction to the Executive Director
- collaborate with influence
- provide sound financial guidance and reporting
- establish effective and productive relationships with key stakeholders.

Your Opportunity

This is an exciting opportunity for experienced individuals who are passionate in their quest to ensure all Queenslanders have a home. Key to your success will be your experience in, and understanding of, the housing and homelessness sector and its many impacts on human health and wellbeing.

Our Management Committee skills reflect the diversity of the sector, with members bringing knowledge and expertise in sector representation, community services, corporate governance, and commercial activities.

In joining our Management Committee, you will require qualifications, knowledge, and experience in the following areas:

- Governance and Financial Acumen
- Strong Policy Experience and Networks particularly in:
 - State and/ or local government
 - Private rental housing
 - Tenancy and consumer protection law.
- Business / Financial Management particularly in:
 - Economics
 - Investment models.
- Property Development and Construction particularly in:
 - Urban and Regional Planning
 - Social Housing
 - Affordable Housing.
- Specialist homelessness program design and service delivery.

Completion of the Australian Institute of Company Directors course is highly desirable.

Your suitability will be assessed against your experience and ability to analyse, critically assess, and drive performance within Management Committee settings, and to constructively build and manage strategic stakeholder relationships.

Diversity and Inclusion

Q Shelter is implementing a range of diversity and inclusion measures. Q Shelter has developed an Innovate Reconciliation Action Plan. Q Shelter strongly encourages First Nation Australians to apply. We support and encourage women, culturally and linguistically diverse peoples, members of the LGBTIQ+ community and people with disability to apply.
